1. Preamble

One of the important functions of the bank is to accept deposits from the public for the purpose of lending and investment. The depositors and their interests form the key area of the regulatory framework for banking in India and this has been enshrined in the Banking Regulation Act, 1949. The Reserve Bank of India is empowered to issue directives / advices on interest rates on deposits and other aspects regarding conduct of deposit accounts from time to time. With liberalization in the financial system and deregulation of interest rates, banks are now free to formulate deposit products within the broad guidelines issued by RBI.

While adopting this policy, the Bank reiterates its commitments to individual customers outlined in the code of Banks Commitment to Customer adopted by the Bank. This document is broad framework under which the rights of common depositors are recognized. Detailed operational instructions on various deposit schemes and related services will be issued from time to time.

2. Objective

The document recognizes the rights of depositors and aims at dissemination of information with regard to various aspects of acceptance of deposits from the members of the public, conduct and operations of various deposits accounts, payment of interest on various deposit accounts, closure of deposit accounts, method of disposal of deposits of deceased depositors, etc. for the benefit of customers. It is expected that this document will impart greater transparency in dealing with the individual customers and create awareness among customers of their rights. The ultimate objective is that the customers get services they are rightfully entitled to receive without demand.

3. Scope

This policy document on deposits outlines the guiding principles in respect of formulation of various deposit products offered by the Bank and terms and conditions governing the conduct of the account.

4. Policy

Types of Deposit Accounts

While various deposit products offered by the Bank are assigned different names. The deposit products can be categorized broadly into the following types.

"Demand deposits" means a deposit received by the Bank which is withdrawable on demand;

Document Name	Policy on Bank Deposit	Document Number	OPR/PBD/1.0
Security Classification	Public	Document Status	Board Approved
Date of Release	01st April,2021	Version Number	1.1

"Savings deposits" means a form of demand deposit which is subject to restrictions as to the number of withdrawals as also the amounts of withdrawals permitted by the Bank during any specified period

"Term deposit" generally means a deposit received by the Bank for a fixed period (minimum 7 days to maximum 10 years) and withdrawable only after the expiry of the fixed period and includes deposits such as Recurring Deposit//Short Deposits/Fixed Deposits.

"Current Account" means a form of demand deposit wherefrom withdrawals are allowed any number of times depending upon the balance in the account or up to a particular agreed amount and will also include other deposit accounts which are neither Savings Deposit nor Term Deposit;

Modes of Deposits

Deposits in account can be made by way of cash, cheques, electronic transfers (RTGS, IMPS, UPI), ECS, or through any other means such as Internet/Mobile Banking which may come into usage after giving due notice by the Bank on its web-site. Cash Deposits transactions at non home branches are subject to certain restrictions and may also involve payment of service charges.

Modes of Withdrawal.

Withdrawals in account can be by way of Cheques, Withdrawal forms, through the use of ATM's, POS machines, by means of electronic transfer through Internet, by use of biometric cards, by giving Standing Instructions to the Bank, ECS Instructions or through any other means which may come into usage after giving due notice by the Bank on its web-site. Bank does not carry out any financial transactions requested by the Customers through e-mail even if the request is made by a letter scanned as an attachment.

Account Opening and Operation of Deposit Accounts-

- i. The Bank before opening any deposit account will carry out due diligence as required under "Know Your Customer" (KYC) guidelines issued by RBI, Anti Money Laundering rules and regulations and or such other norms or procedures as per the Customer Acceptance Policy of the bank. If the decision to open an account of a prospective depositor requires clearance at a higher level, reasons for any delay in opening of the account will be informed to him/her and the final decision of the Bank will be conveyed at the earliest.
- ii. The bank is committed to providing basic banking services to unbanked and underprivileged sections of the society. Banking services will be offered to them through "Basic Savings Bank Deposit Account". If such accounts are opened on the basis of simplified "KYC" norms the account would additionally be treated as "Small Account" and would be subject to conditions stipulated for such accounts under KYC norms/ AML standards.
- iii. The account opening forms and other material would be provided to the prospective depositor by

Settlement of Dues in Deceased Deposit Account

- a. If the depositor has registered nomination with the bank; the balance outstanding in the account of the deceased depositor will be transferred to the account of/paid to the nominee after the Bank satisfies about the identity of the nominee, etc. The above procedure will be followed even in respect of a joint account where nomination is registered with the Bank.
- b. In a joint deposit account, when one of the joint account holders dies, the Bank is required to make payment jointly to the legal heirs of the deceased person and the surviving depositor(s).
- c. If the operating instructions are “Either or Survivor” and one of the depositor expires, no prepayment of fixed/term deposit shall be allowed without the concurrence of the legal heirs of the deceased joint holder. This however would not stand in the way of making payment to the survivor on maturity.
- d. If the operating instructions are “Former or Survivor” and in case the former expires before the maturity of the term deposit, the survivors can withdraw the deposit on maturity. Premature withdrawal would however require the consent of legal heir of the deceased in case of death of one of the depositors.
- e. If the joint depositors prefer to allow premature withdrawal of fixed\term deposits by surviving joint depositor on the death of the other, a joint mandate from the joint depositors to this effect is required.
- f. In the absence of nomination and when there are no disputes among the claimants, the Bank will pay the amount outstanding in the account of deceased person against joint application and indemnity by all legal heirs or the person mandated by the legal heirs to receive the payment on their behalf without insisting on legal documents up to the limit approved by the bank’s board. This is to ensure that the common depositors are not put to hardship on account of delays in completing legal formalities.

Settlement of Claims in Respect of Missing Person

The nominee/legal heirs of the missing depositor have to raise an express presumption of death of the depositor after a lapse of seven years from the date of his/ her being reported missing under section 107/108 of the Indian Evidence Act before a competent court of law. The claim in respect of such missing person shall be settled by the bank if the court presumes that he/she is dead.

Interest Payable on Term Deposit in Deceased Account

In case of death of the depositor before the date of maturity of the deposit and claim of proceeds by the nominee/legal heir before maturity, payment of the proceeds will be treated like a normal premature payment without penalty,

Since on the date of maturity the fixed/ term deposit is either to be renewed or proceeds to be credited to a designated account, there will be no overdue deposit in the Bank

Insurance Cover for Deposits

All bank deposits are covered under the insurance scheme offered by Deposit Insurance and Credit Guarantee Corporation of India (DICGCI) subject to certain limits and conditions. The details of the

Stop Payment Facility

The Bank will accept stop payment instruction from the depositors in respect of cheques issued by them. Charges, as specified, will be recovered.

Dormant Accounts

Accounts, which are not operated for a period of two years, will be transferred to a separate dormant/inoperative account status in the interest of the depositor as well as the Bank. The depositor will be informed of charges, if any, which the Bank will levy on dormant/inoperative accounts. The dormant account can be activated at the request of the customer with submission of fresh KYC documents. Bank after observing due diligence and verification of documents will activate such accounts. The depositor will be informed of charges, if any, which the bank will levy on dormant accounts.

Redressal of Complaints and grievances

Depositors having any complaint/grievances with regard to services rendered by the Bank has a right to approach authority (ies) designated by the Bank for handling customer complaint/grievances. The details of the internal set up for redressal of complaints/grievances will be displayed in the branch premises and will also be updated on Bank website. The branch officials shall provide all required information regarding procedure for lodging the complaint. In case the depositor does not get response from the Bank within 30- days from the date of complaint or he is not satisfied with the response received from the Bank, he has a right to approach Banking Ombudsman

5. Applicability

The policy is effective from April 01, 2021

6. Periodicity of Review of Policy

The policy will be valid upto March 31, 2022. Any directive/ guidelines issued by RBI in this regard shall automatically be part of this policy, during the currency of this policy. The Chairman & CEO may allow continuation of the policy for a maximum period of six months from due date of review, in case the policy cannot be reviewed on or before due date.
